WHAT ARE PAHS?

A PAH is a polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbon, that is, a chemical substance that results from several different activities, including burning certain materials. PAHs are found in nature, which means we're constantly in contact with them.

WHY ARE PAHS HARMFUL?

Too much exposure to these substances can adversely affect both people and the environment.

In humans, they can be an irritant if they come into contact with the skin and eyes or cause respiratory failure and nervous system impairment when inhaled.

As for the environment, they are long-lasting organic substances do not break down easily, so they can remain in the environment for years, severely impacting aquatic and terrestrial ecosystems.

WHY ARE PAHS HARMFUL?

Under the framework of the analysis made by the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED), from 2021 forward the ISSF will require the use of eco-friendly clay targets in international championships, World Cups and Olympics.

WHAT IS VIVAZ'S RESPONSE?

Our goal is to become the market's leading manufacturer of eco-friendly targets.

Which means that we go beyond simply making eco-friendly targets and are an environmentally friendly, efficient company.

Our production processes are designed to optimise how we use all of our resources.
